

Weekly Newsletter

Friday June 22nd 2018

Reminders

- Our 50th anniversary takes place next Thursday. Pupils are reminded that they may dress up in the afternoon in 1960's themed outfits. School uniform is to be worn into school for the Mass at 11am.

Dolphin Assembly

A big thank you to Dolphin Class for their lovely assembly this morning. They reminded us about their work in their current RE topic of 'Being Sorry'. Many thanks to all of you who came along to support your child and to Miss Abrams and Miss Colligan for preparing them so well. Secret Life of 4,5 & 6 Year Olds – gwyech!

Visits and Visitors

- Yesterday we were visited by a group of headteachers from Cardiff schools. They came to share our best practice in Welsh and curriculum development. Special thanks must go to the members of Cyngor Cymraeg who did a fantastic job of impressing our visitors with their well-developed communication and Welsh skills.
- Miss Colligan and the members of enterprise club attended the annual enterprise fair which was held in Haverfordwest this week. The children sold a range of items that they have been making during their after-school club. They thoroughly enjoyed their day and Miss Colligan was delighted with their excellent behaviour. Thank you to Lisa Smith for giving up her time to accompany them.
- This morning the Fire Service visited Ramsey and Caldey classes to discuss fire safety in the home. We are very grateful to the continuing support that we need from the emergency services.
- Next Friday sees the first of the Y6 transition days to Milford Haven School. The transition booklet, Having a Whale of a Time, will be started on Monday. This work extends to summer holiday activities and then continues when they enter Y7. A trip to Milford Haven Museum will take place to help set the scene for the work around the history of Milford Haven, date TBC.

Attendance

Our attendance last week was 92.32%. Dolphin Class were the best with 95.42%. Well done to you all.

Parish Links

Preparation is under way for the First Holy Communion. There are seven pupils receiving the sacrament this year. Dates will be confirmed as soon as possible.
